Import players from file

You can import players from an Excel-generated .csv-file by clicking on “Import players from file” in the Players dropdown menu:

Import players from file

i Your file has to match the exact specifications. -> Download an empty template.
The only mandatory field is LastName.

Select file:  Keine ausgewählt  import players

◀ back to overview

Before importing players, make sure of the following:

1. The column names of your export file must be named the following:
  - LastName
  - Name
  - LicenceNr
  - Nationality
  - PlaceOfBirth
  - DateOfBirth
  - Sex
  - Team
  - UniformNr
  - PlayerPic
  - Bats
  - Throws

If one of these columns is missing or misspelled, the import cannot be executed.

2. The only mandatory field is LastName.
3. Save your list of players in a comma delimited format (.csv)

Import players from BSM

You can also import existing players from BSM by clicking on “Import players from BSM” in the Players dropdown menu:

Lineups

After creating your leagues, rounds, teams, games and players, the final step before scoring your game is to enter the starting lineups. Insert only the starting players and do not change the Spot numbers:

Starting Lineups

Year:  League:  Round:  Game:

1 Enter the starting lineups here. If a pitcher has a DH, enter the pitcher in the 10 spot.
 2 You can overwrite uniform numbers which will get saved after saving the lineups.

2. Scoring the game

Reaching 1st base

To put a batter/runner to first base, simply click on the first base of the currently active batter:

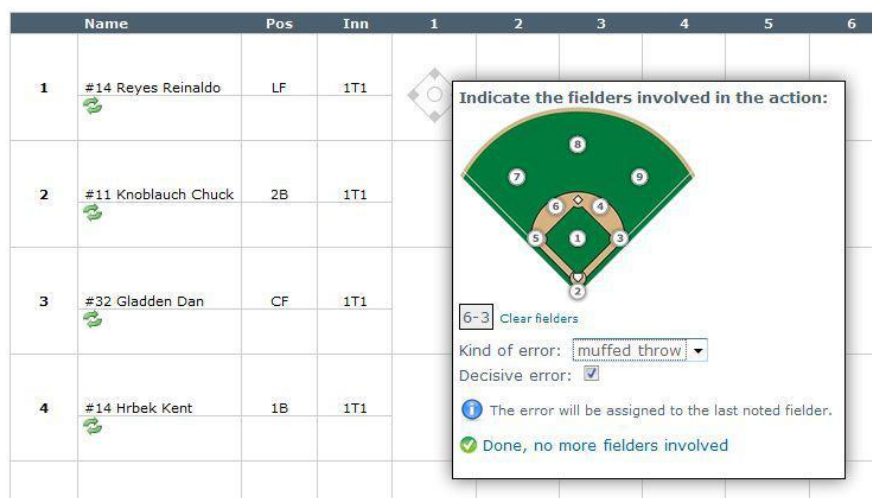

Depending on the scoring system, the following actions are available for a batter reaching 1st base:

- Single (1B)
- Bunt single (B1B)
- Base on Balls (BB)
- Intentional walk (IBB)
- Error (E.). A window will appear, asking you to indicate which fielder made the error. Do this by clicking on the respective defensive position or use the numbers 1-9 on your keyboard.

You can undo wrong inputs by clicking on "Clear fielders" which clears all fielders.

Also, select the kind of error from the dropdown. Note: The error will be assigned to the last noted fielder. If you enter 6-3 with a muffed throw, the 1st baseman will be charged with an error, while the shortstop will get an assist:

- Fielder's choice (FC).
- Hit by pitch (HP).

- Sacrifice with error (SH E.). Use this if a batter clearly tries to hit a sacrifice bunt, and is safe due to a defensive error.
- Sacrifice hit with fielder's choice (SH FC). Use this if the defense fails to record an out on the runner(s).
- Sacrifice fly with error (SF E.). Use this if the defense fails to catch the fly ball hit by the batter, and the runner subsequently scores.
- Sacrifice fly with fielder's choice (SF FC). Use this if the defense fails to catch the fly ball, but nevertheless succeeds in putting out a runner.
- Dropped 3rd strike – WP (K WP). Batter is safe at first due to a wild pitch after a dropped third strike.
- Dropped 3rd strike - PB (K PB). Batter is safe at first due to a passed ball after a dropped third strike.
- Dropped 3rd strike – Error (K E.). Batter is safe at first due to a defensive error after a dropped third strike.
- Dropped 3rd strike - Fielder's choice (K FC). Use this if the batter reaches first base after a dropped strike, but a runner is made out on the bases.
- Catcher's interference (CI)
- Obstruction (FC)
- Tiebreaker: Place runner (ITR). This is used for the International Tie Breaker Rule, also employed by ESF and ISF for softball games in extra innings. Independent of which runner is placed on base, click the entry, and an additional dialog will pop up, asking you to indicate which batter goes where:

	Name	Pos	Inn	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
1	#49 Albrecht Bruno	CF	1T1
2	#51 Baumann Damien	2B	1T1
3	#5 Bekkali Farid	C	1T1

- Checkboxes "This action is part of a double play/triple play": Activate either box in advance if the chosen action will be part of a double play or triple play. This is mostly true for actions that result in an out.

Every time there are runners on base, an additional popup will appear asking you to indicate what happens with those runners:

	Name	Pos	Inn	1	2	3	4
1	#11 Davis Rajai 	CF	1T1
2	#14 Ellis Mark 	2B	1T1
3	#8 Suzuki Kurt 	DH	1T1

Please indicate what happens with the runners on base:

Reaching 2nd base

Reaching 2nd base can be accomplished either by a hit or by other means, like being batted forward:

	Name	Pos	Inn	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
1	#49 Albrecht Bruno	CF	1T1	I K

Following actions are available for a batter reaching 2nd base:

- Double (2B)
- Error (E.). The same subsequent popup appears as for errors at 1st base.
- Tiebreaker: Place runner (ITR).

Putting a runner to second base from first base can be accomplished in several ways:

	Name	Pos	Inn	1	2	3	4	5	6
1	#14 Reyes Reinaldo	LF	1T1
2	#11 Knoblauch Chuck	2B	1T1
3	#32 Gladden Dan	CF	1T1

☐ This is a subsequent action

☐ This action is part of a double play

☐ This action is part of a triple play

- Stolen Base (SB.). The number that gets written automatically behind SB will indicate the batter during which the runner stole the base.
- Batted forward (x.). The number that gets written automatically behind the x will indicate the batter which batted the runner forward. This is a subsequent action, meaning that it cannot be scored as a standalone action, but rather as a result of a previous action. This will be noted accordingly in the Play-by-Play, as well.

- Fielder's choice (FC). This is automatically a subsequent action, for example if the batter/runner advances to the next base on a throw to another base.
- Advanced on error (e.). A non-decisive extra-base error.
- Caught stealing with error (CS E.). Mostly for mishandling a good throw by the catcher, for example CS 2-E4.
- Advance runner E WP PB BK ((E), (WP), (PB) or (BK)). As a subsequent action, this is used to advance additional runners on one single action.
- Wild Pitch (WP.). The number that gets written automatically behind WP will indicate the batter during which the wild pitch occurred.
- Passed ball (PB.). The number that gets written automatically behind PB will indicate the batter during which the passed ball occurred.
- Balk (BK.). The number that gets written automatically behind BK will indicate the batter during which the balk occurred.
- Fielder's indifference (FI).
- Checkbox for "This is a subsequent action": Activate this checkbox in advance if the indicated action will be a subsequent action. For example: If the runner advances to third base on a throwing error after stealing second base, first activate the checkbox and then click the link "Advance on error".
- Checkboxes "This action is part of a double play/triple play": Activate either box in advance if the chosen action will be part of a double play or triple play. This is mostly true for actions that result in an out.

Reaching 3rd base

The actions that can be used to put a runner on 3rd base are the same as for reaching 2nd base (except for the triple):

	Name	Pos	Inn	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
1	#49 Albrecht Bruno	CF	1T1
2	#51 Baumann Damien	2B	1T1

Reaching home

The actions that can be used to put a runner on 3rd base are the same as for reaching 2nd base and 3rd (except the home run):

You can always change a run to be earned or unearned by clicking on home plate of the field which run you want to change, bringing up the same dialog where it asks you to indicate whether the run is earned or unearned:

A visual help is displayed on the upper right corner, showing you quickly on which bases runners are positioned. If more than one runner is placed on the same base, the corresponding base is colored in red, giving you a hint that you have to take further actions to remove the conflict:

Out

To record an out, click on the circle in the middle of the diamond. The popup selection menu will display different choices for batters and runners. The following are the actions for batters:

- Sacrifice fly (SF.)
- Out by rule (OBR.)
- Foul bunt for 3rd strike (OBR K)
- Dropped infield fly (OBR F.)
- Lost turn at bat (LT)
- Appeal play (AP.)

- End Inning (run limitation): Select this entry if your league has a limitation of number of runs scored per inning.
- This action is part of a double play/triple play: Check this box in advance if the batter hits into a DP or TP.

The following are the out actions for runners:

Appeal play

☐ This is a subsequent action

☐ This action is part of a double play

☐ This action is part of a triple play

- Forced out / Tagged out. Used to put out a runner on a fielder's choice.
- Caught stealing (CS.). The number that gets written automatically behind CS will indicate the batter during which the runner got caught stealing.
- Out advancing. Mostly used when a batter/runner unsuccessfully tries to stretch his hit.
- Out on double play (DP.). Used to score the out on the runner on a double play.
- Out on triple play (TP.). Used to score the out on the runner on a triple play.
- Picked off (PK.)
- Out by rule (OBR.)
- Appeal play (AP.)
- This is a subsequent action: Check this box in advance if the indicated action is a subsequent action. For example: If the runner advances to third base on a throwing error after stealing second base, first activate the checkbox and then click the link "Advance on error".
- This action is part of a double play/triple play: Check this box in advance if the batter hits into a DP or TP.

After all outs, the defensive context menu will pop up where you have to indicate the fielders involved in the action.

Note: On double plays, you will additionally have to indicate which out of the double play the action is:

Out of DP/TP #: ☐ 1 ☐ 2 ☐ 3

Notes and comments

You can add comments to any field by clicking in the upper right corner of the respective field:

A popup will show up, where you can assign an error or write additional comments:

Balls & Strikes

With a Pro account, you can record balls and strikes for every batter, and even change it later on. You can do this by clicking on the count box  in the upper left corner of each field or pressing c on your keyboard:

The letters in parenthesis indicate the keyboard key that can be used to record the pitch.

Record each pitch before the one that is put into play. The pitch that is put into play will be added automatically as a strike to the pitchers' pitch count.

Note the following special actions:

- On a base-on-balls, record all four balls. After the fourth ball, a Walk is written automatically on the scoresheet.
- On a strikeout, record all pitches, including the one that struck out the batter. If the strike is not a foul ball and is the third strike, the Count overlay will close automatically and you still have the possibility to choose the strikeout, including a possible throw to first base.
- On a hit by pitch, record all pitches, except the one that hit the batter. Use the button "Hit By Pitch" on that pitch. An additional ball will be added to the pitcher's pitch count and the Hit-By-Pitch is written automatically on the scoresheet.
- On an intentional walk where the pitcher has to throw four balls, use the button "Intentional Walk" on every pitch. After the fourth pitch, an Intentional Walk is written automatically on the scoresheet.
- If an intentional walk is announced, use the corresponding button.
- When the ball is put into play, use the "In Play" button. A strike is added automatically to the pitcher's count.

The pitch sequence displays all the pitches, including pickoffs, that were pitched this at-bat.

The current count displays the hitter's count.

If you have activated Advanced Metrics in your Settings, then you will see an additional block on top where you can indicate the type, speed and location in the strike zone for every pitch:

You must indicate exactly one pitcher for the win (W) and one pitcher for the loss (L). You can also indicate one pitcher for the save (S) and others that get blown saves (BS) or holds (H).

You should also indicate the game's end time in the appropriate box.

Saving this information also will write the total runs scored by both teams and generate static Box Scores.

You can also add Penalty Runs. These are runs that are virtually added to a team’s runs total.

After the Box Scores have been created, the statistics for Offense, Defense and Pitching to be displayed on the scoresheet are generated. This can be used to check the manually calculated totals:

Substitutions

To substitute a player, click on  which will bring up the context menu from which you can choose the new player, and, if applicable, the new position:

Upon further scoring a check is performed whether there are duplicate entries for any position and if so, displays an according warning:

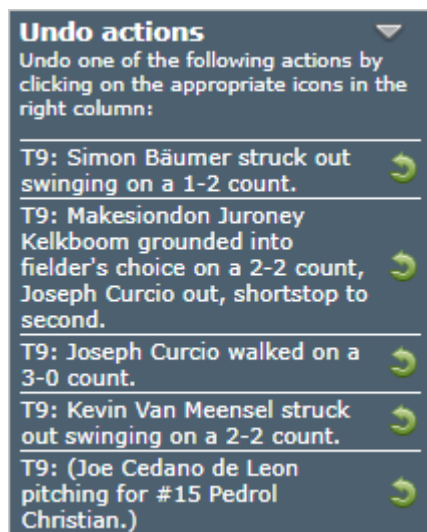

You must correct the duplicate entry before being able to continue scoring.

Undo actions

You can undo any of the last five actions by clicking on the “Undo action” bar in the top right corner or z on your keyboard. The actions will be listed in chronological descending order (latest action on top):

After undoing an action, you have the possibility to undo five additional actions.

Note: If you undo an action that is not the latest, any actions that happened after the selected action will be undone, as well!

Custom Play-By-Play entries

If you wish, you can add a customized text at any time to the automatically generated Play-By-Play by clicking on the button “Add an entry to the Play-By-Play” in the Play-By-Play tab:

By checking the checkbox “Show in GameCast” you can add customized texts that will show up in the live GameCast. This is useful if for example the game is delayed by rain.

Assisted Scoring

With Assisted Scoring turned on, the following subsequent actions will be scored for you automatically:

- Advance all forced runners on a walk, intentional walk, hit-by-pitch, catchers' interference or sacrifice bunt
- Advance all runners on a balk
- Score all runners on a home run, triple or sacrifice fly

Additionally, unnecessary entries will be hidden in the actions menus (f.ex. “Sacrifice fly” with no runner on third base, or “Dropped 3rd strike” with no runner on 1st base and less than 2 outs).

You can activate or deactivate Assisted Scoring at any time by clicking on the icon  left to the button “End game”.

Using the keyboard

For most of the scoring actions, you can use your keyboard. To bring up a help menu with all possible keyboard shortcuts, simply click ? next to the „Undo action“ bar.

On the “Settings” screen you can change general settings for your account:

- Regional setting: Set the region which suites you best. This has an effect on date/time outputs.
- Display of names: Choose how names are displayed in general.
- Display Balls & Strikes? (available only for Pro Accounts): Indicate whether you want to record balls and strikes during a batter’s at-bat.
- Display Hit Location? (available only for Pro Accounts): Indicate whether you want to indicate the location of hits.
- Scoring system: Choose your preferred system of scoring.
- Advanced Metrics: With this option activated you get to indicate the precise location of where the ball was hit to, resulting in spray charts to be displayed for each player (will follow soon). And in combination with the option “Display Balls & Strikes”, you get to choose the type, speed and location in the strike zone for each pitch, resulting in detailed information for Live Play-By-Play texts, and heat charts both for batters and pitchers (will follow soon).
- Expiry date: Shows when your account will expire. You will get a reminder mail two weeks before your account will expiry.

Note: Your account is not renewed automatically, so you will have to take appropriate actions if you want to prevent your account from expiring.

Also, accounts are not deleted, only deactivated, so you can reactivate any account at any later time.

Save your changes by clicking on .

- Change password: Enables you to enter a new password.
